

Bristol Valley Theater is excited to partner with local libraries to support The King's Legacy, our 2019 New Works production. We invite you to enrich your experience of this world premiere musical by reading The Other Boleyn Girl, by Philippa Gregory. This popular novelization of the same characters and history that frame The King's Legacy will be a book club selection. Libraries will also screen the film version starring Scarlet Johansson. In addition, each location is hosting "Meet the Author" events with Michael Radi, writer/composer of The King's Legacy. Michael will share his insight on the story and the process of bringing it to the stage. Participants will receive a voucher to attend a free dress rehearsal or to buy a discounted ticket to a regular performance.

August 22 – September 1

In his obsessive quest for a male heir, King Henry VIII careened through six wives, palace plots, beheadings and a confrontation with the Pope, and nearly tore his country apart. But it was his daughter, Queen Elizabeth I, who changed the world. A thrilling musical journey through the intrigue of the Tudor court.

This project was made possible in part by a grant from Canandaigua Classics/Kiwanis

Attend any of these library events and receive a voucher for a dress rehearsal or discount tickets to a performance of The King's Legacy.
